Our Mission

GMUN aims to give students the possibility to learn more about current international issues and ways to resolve them within the UN system, to apply basic diplomatic courtesy, and also to contribute to the development of their personal skills (public speaking, negotiation, debating, and compromise). GMUN is an equal-access opportunity for new experiences, diplomatic debates, and young leaders to network.

You are an impressive set of young people who take the time to get involved in something like this because you care about the world around you.
