C. Pedagogical project

In the course, students from University of Roma Tor Vergata (Italy), University of the Balearic Islands (Spain), and Friedrich - Alexander-University Erlangen-Nürnberg (Germany) will learn about openness in education, develop open educational resources (OER) and engage in international dialogue and exchange. As part of the course, a virtual preparation phase takes place, equipping the students with a first understanding of openness and its relation to education, e.g. museum education, and joining the courses at each university. During the on-site phase at the University of the Balearic Islands, the groups will further their content knowledge and work in groups to develop exemplary OERs.

D. Online activities

In the virtual part students will initiate the project work by: getting to know each other, and their cultural districts; introducing to Open Education: collaborative processes and OER co-creation; introducing to Data Literacy: initial overview to the datafied society. The virtual activity will take place between the 16th and the 31st October 2025.

E. Onsite activities

In the in-person part students will continue the work initiated in the virtual part: getting to know each other, and their cultural districts; playing data literacy games to practices data skills and to interact among them; follow-up to Open Education: collaborative processes and OER co-creation (finalising a joint product); data-based practice by describing their local contexts through the cultural district approach. The in-person activity will take place in Spain between the 3rd and the 7th November 2025.

F. Associated ECTS

Each participant will receive an attendance certificate.

The course workload is 3 ECTS and it can be validated through a Learning Agreement.

2. Funding and scholarships

The project is founded by ERASMUS+ and students from the University of Rome Tor Vergata will have a scholarship to cover the costs related to the short-term physical mobility. All the students enrolled in a bachelor, master, single cycle or PhD for the academic year 2025-2026 are eligible for the scholarship.

The project is funded by ERASMUS+ and students at the University of Rome Tor Vergata will receive a grant to cover the costs of short-term physical mobility. All students enrolled in a bachelor, master degree or single-cycle degree for the academic year 2025-2026 are eligible for the scholarship.

Students participating in the mobility will receive the following grants:

Type of contribution	Eligibility requirements	Amount of contribution
Individual support	Students selected for the BIP programme	From the 1 st until the 14 th day of physical mobility: 79 € per day
		From the 15 th until the 30 th day of mobility: 56 € per day
TOP-UP	Students selected for the BIP programme with fewer opportunities	From 1 st until 14 th day of mobility: 100€ one-off
		From the 15 th until the 30 th day of mobility: 150 € one-off

For students with fewer opportunities, please refer to the National Guidelines at the following link: https://www.erasmusplus.it/wp-content/uploads/2024/02/Disposizioni-nazionali-HE_v-2_2024.pdf

The University of Rome Tor Vergata provides for the recognition of specific travel grants to support for physical mobility carried out at partner institutions within the framework of the Erasmus BIPs. These contributions travel grants, in implementation of the Erasmus+ 2021-2027 Programme, are aimed at encouraging international student mobility for students with fewer opportunities.

The subsidy for the travel, according to the Programme Guide, is calculated on the basis of unit cost scales for distance bands. The distance band refers to a single leg of the travel while the corresponding tariff covers both the outward and the return flight.

The contribution is recognized up to the amount indicated in the table below:

Travel distances	Amount for travel
From 10 to 99 KM	€ 28,00
From 100 to 499 KM	€ 211,00
From 500 to 1999 KM	€ 309,00
From 2000 to 2999 KM	€ 395,00
From 3000 to 3999 KM	€ 580,00
