

The G8 and Beyond: The Economics and Politics of a Global Century?

*Hosted by the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs,
Convened with the Brookings Institution, Aspen Italia, Club de Madrid, Link Campus University – Sage,
Centro di Eccellenza Jean Monnet – Fondazione Economia Tor Vergata
Sponsored by ENEL SpA*

21-22 June 2009, Villa Madama, Rome

List of Participants

Maria E. Aguero	Director of Special Programs and Institutional Relations, Club de Madrid, Spain
Giuliano Amato	Former Prime Minister of Italy, Italy
Alicia Barcena Ibarra	Executive Secretary, Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC), Mexico
Mauro Battocchi	Embassy Counselor, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy
Holly Benner	Assistant MGI Project Director, The Brookings Institution, United States
Federiga Bindi	Advisor to the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs and Visiting Fellow, The Brookings Institution, Italy
Anasse Bouhlal	Professor, University of Tampere, Finland
Ralf Brickau	Dean, International School of Management of Dortmund, Germany
Kim Campbell	Former Prime Minister of Canada, Canada
Jorge Castaneda	Former Foreign Minister of Mexico, Mexico
Antonella Cavallari	Head of Cabinet of the Deputy Minister Vincenzo Scotti, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy
Marta Dassù	Managing Director, ASPEN Italy, Italy
Alain Economides	Head of Cabinet of the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy
Marco Emanuele	Special Assistant of Deputy Minister Vincenzo Scotti, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy
Khalid Emara	Minister, Permanent Mission of Egypt in Geneva, Egypt
Ezio Falini	Italian Ministry of Education, Italy
Pasquale Ferrara	Head of Office of the Policy Planning Unit, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy
Jean Paul Fitoussi	President of the Scientific Council, Institut d'Etudes Politiques (IEP), France
Franco Frattini	Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Former Vice-Chair of the European Commission, Italy
Michael Frendo	Former Minister of Foreign Affairs of Malta, Malta
Richard Gardner	Former United States Ambassador to Italy, United States
Piero Gnudi	President, ENEL SpA, Italy
James Kondo	President, Health Policy Institute of Japan, Japan
Domenico La Spina	Embassy Counselor, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy
Celso Lafer	Former Foreign Minister of Brazil, Brazil

The G8 and Beyond: The Economics and Politics of a Global Century?

*Hosted by the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs,
Convened with the Brookings Institution, Aspen Italia, Club de Madrid, Link Campus University – Sage,
Centro di Eccellenza Jean Monnet – Fondazione Economia Tor Vergata
Sponsored by ENEL SpA*

21-22 June 2009, Villa Madama, Rome

List of Participants

Ricardo Lagos	Former President of Chile, Chile
G.Domenico Magliano	General Director of the DGCE, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy
Maurizio Massari	Spoke-Person, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy
Giampiero Massolo	Secretary General of the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs and Italian Sherpa for the G8, Italy
Cesare Merlini	Professor, Executive Chairman of the Council for the Italian – US Relationship, Italy
Karim Mezran	Director, Center for American Studies, Italy
Joseph Mifsud	President of the Euro-Mediterranean University (EMUNI), Malta
Mario Monti	Former European Commissioner and Professor, Bocconi University, Italy
Andrew Moravcsik	Professor, Princeton University, United States
Alessandro Ovi	Executive Vice-President, Foundation for World Wide Cooperation, Italy
Luigi Paganetto	President, CEIS-University of Rome Tor Vergata, President, National Agency New Technologies, Energy, Environment, Italy
Giuseppe Perrone	President, Associazione Management Club, Italy
Edmund Phelps	Nobel Prize for Economics, Professor at Columbia University, United States
Romano Prodi	Former Italian Prime Minister, Former President of the European Commission, Italy
Minuto Rizzo	Ambassador, Advisor to the ENEL Executive Board, Former Deputy Secretary General NATO, Italy
Fabrizio Saccomanni	General Director, Banca d'Italia, Former Vice-Chair, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), Italy
Jeffrey Sachs	Director, The Earth Institute, Columbia University, United States
Dominik Salvatore	Professor, Fordham University, United States
Vincenzo Scotti	Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy
Timo Timmerman	Founder and Dean of the New Business School in Amsterdam, The Netherlands
Adrian Talbott	Executive Director, Generation Engage, United States
Strobe Talbott	President, The Brookings Institution, United States
Wang Jisi	Dean, School of International Studies, Peking University, China

The G8 and Beyond: The Economics and Politics of a Global Century?

*Hosted by the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs,
Convened with the Brookings Institution, Aspen Italia, Club de Madrid, Link Campus University – Sage,
Centro di Eccellenza Jean Monnet – Fondazione Economia Tor Vergata
Sponsored by ENEL SpA*

21-22 June 2009, Villa Madama, Rome

List of Participants

Others

Paolo Campanini

Counselor, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy

Stefano Canzio

Counselor, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy

Ugo Colombo Sacco

Embassy Counselor, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy

Elisabeth Dibble

Chargé d'Affaires, US Embassy to Italy, United States

Basilio Toth

First Secretary, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy

BROOKINGS

